

Effective 5/10/2016

63A-3-302 Unpaid accounts receivable due the state.

If any account receivable has been unpaid for more than 90 days, any agency or other authority of state government, or any political subdivision, as defined in Section 63G-7-102, of the state responsible for collection of the account may proceed under this part to collect the delinquent amount.

Amended by Chapter 129, 2016 General Session

Amended by Chapter 298, 2016 General Session